

Department of Administration Purchase and Contract Statewide Purchasing Conference (March 29-31, 2005)

Some feedback from conference attendees

- 'Would like to see a conference that is a little more detailed. More detailed workshops.'
- 'The conference is a great opportunity for new purchasers to get introduced to the intricacies of the state purchasing process. It was also a great chance to network and learn from other purchasers.'
- 'The conference was well organized and very informational. I learned a lot about purchasing and how to purchase within state guidelines.'
- 'The sessions that I learned best from had organized, engaging speakers who provided handouts we could take home to study and have a reference. I disliked the open Q&A format of the state agency session.'
- 'Excellent session overall – great networking opportunity. Well organized & represented by multiple areas. Thanks for the experience!'
- 'More information pertaining to municipalities/cities.'
- 'I would have enjoyed hearing about guidelines on purchasing such as do & don'ts as a new purchaser. Overall the conference was informational.'
- 'One of the best conferences I have attended.'
- 'Should have pre-determined some topics, discussion from audience—more discussion would have resulted.'
- 'Wonderful Opportunity – Thank You.'
